PAYMENT REMINDERS

1. Make sure that the account number you provide is correct.
2. Please pay on or before your due date to avoid penalty and any inconvenience which may be caused by the disconnection of your electric service. A Disconnection Notice will be issued for failure to settle current bill after due date.
3. Payment can be made on, before, or after due date at MORE Office or thru any of the accredited banks, payment centers, or via GCash and DragonPay. (See MORE website for list of accredited third-party collecting agents)
4. Always ask for an official receipt or validated receipt.
5. A two percent (2%) surcharge on the UNPAID AMOUNT of the bill shall be charged to the customer on the next billing cycle.
6. If you received a Disconnection Notice (separate notice or embedded in your bill), please pay within 48-hours to avoid disconnection.
7. For payments received after disconnection of service, a Twenty Pesos (Php 20.00) reconnection fee, exclusive of the value-added tax, shall be charged on the next billing cycle.

Disputes not settled by our Consumer Welfare Desk can be elevated to the ERC Consumer Affairs Service at (02) 687-55-77 or by email at consumer@erc.gov.ph

ANNOUNCEMENT:
If electric service has been disconnected due to non-payment of bill, a BILL DEPOSIT will be collected and/or adjusted based on your actual average monthly bill in the past 12 months or P2,500 whichever is higher.

DISCONNECTION NOTICE

Please pay immediately your unpaid electric consumption in the sum indicated as overdue. If the amount remains unpaid, we will be constrained to disconnect your electric service after 48 hours from receipt of this notice. Kindly disregard this notice if you have already made prior payment arrangements. For other concerns and inquiries, you may call our hotline at (033) 330-MORE (6673); message us in FB Messenger, MORE Power Iloilo; visit our website at www.morepower.com.ph; or email us at customercare@morepower.ph.
